

General Education Program Assessment Reporting Timeframe & Deadlines

- ❖ Relevant faculty/instructors develop and/or submit their annual course level Core assessment report to the College Assessment Review Committees (CARCs), or the equivalent, for review and feedback.
- ❖ CARCs complete the process of collecting and reviewing their annual course level Core assessment reports for feedback.

- ❖ The college/school/branch representative who serves on the General Education Assessment Subcommittee (GEAS) collects and archives the final versions of the annual course level Core assessment reports, including accompanying evidence, for his/her college, school or branch.

- ❖ The GEAS representative provide the Office of Assessment (OA) with access to the annual course level Core assessment reports, including accompanying evidence.
- ❖ The GEAS, under the guidance of the OA, summarizes and reports on the annual course level Core assessment reports in the University's annual General Education Comprehensive Assessment Report.

NOTE: Colleges/Schools/Branches are expected to establish internal deadlines that adhere to the institutional timeframe and deadlines outlined in the diagram. Internal deadlines should be posted on the assessment webpage of the college, school or branch. You can access these assessment pages at <http://assessment.unm.edu/assessment-committees/carc.html>.
